

MAP & SITES

CURTIS FARM

10990 Austin Road | Brooklyn, MI 49230

One of Jackson County's oldest successful roadside markets still operating at Curtis Farm. Come enjoy the ability to see what it's like in the life of a hard working farmer. Sweet corn, field corn, hay, wheat and unlimited fresh vegetables are all grown on this stunning property. Nestled on a beautiful 300 acre setting, you will fall in love with this long-established roadside stand. Home to several antique tractors, delicious homegrown vegetables and fresh flowers, you'll see why tradition serves best, "down on the farm!"

YMCA STORER CAMPUS

6941 Stony Lake Road | Jackson, MI 49201

If you like the outdoors then you'll love the 1,200 acres of converted farmland into environmental use for children's education. Breathe the fresh air on 90 acres of hay fields, almost three miles of lake shoreline, fifteen different ecosystems, pine forests, prairies and marshlands. YMCA Storer Camps allows visitors to truly enjoy the remarkable beauty of nature. The camp is settled along side Stony Lake in the Irish Hills of Jackson, so enjoy the pristine view of the lake! Demonstrations of the High Ropes and the Climbing Tower will be also be on site.

NELLIE'S LAVENDER ESTATE

10405 Sharon Valley Road | Jackson, MI 49201

The smell of lavender is in the air at Nellie's Lavender Estate this Farmfest. Nellie's grows, crafts and sells their own lavender-based culinary, bath and body care items. Proprietor, Suzanne Graves will show Farmfest visitors how she turns her sweet smelling crop into the most sumptuous products. The property is home to well over 500 lavender plants and many native wildflowers. This stop will be a feast for all the senses.